

TAPE

Online Workshop

Featuring Dr. Judith Myers-Walls from Purdue University

Helping Children and Parents Deal with Disasters and Political Violence

Dr. Judith Myers-Walls will facilitate the 2nd TAPE online workshop entitled Helping Children and Parents Deal with Disasters and Political Violence. Judith Myers-Walls, an Extension specialist in Family Life, has devoted much of her career on the needs of children and families who have experienced trauma or violence.

Please contact Linda Ladd at lladd@mail.twu.edu for more information.

Date: Wednesday, July 23, 2008

Time: 12:00 pm—1:00 pm

Sponsor: Collin College

Register for this workshop at www.cpe.unt.edu/tape

Judith Myers-Walls is one of four editors of the National Extension Parenting Education Model. Judith has over 40 journal articles and book chapters, over 50 Extension publications and curriculum packages, and has given over 80 national and international presentations. When disaster strikes, Judith Myers-Walls is sought after by newspapers and magazines to provide expert advice that is designed to help families survive and manage their lives.

Be sure to check out Judith's website entitled The Purple Wagon which is the result of her work following the September 11, 2001 tragedy – the site was visited 6000 times on that sad day. Since that time, Judith and her team have developed fact sheets such as Helping Children Cope with a Disaster, Helping Children Cope with Stress, and Helping Children Overcome Fears – to name a few of the publications available at www.ces.purdue.edu/purplewagon.